This is a chart of a man born to rule. I was looking for a brain tumor? To explain his madness but it’s much worse than that – he was born on an eclipse. Which I saw in his chart but confirmed it – he is a force of nature – his karma is unbeatable and Uranus conjunct his sun, north node etc .. Well he is a very powerful opponent, he is self-taught – arrogant – says what’s on his mind – unfiltered – a genius in his own right and a despot. That uranian influence is so strong - he lives by his own rules, makes his own rules, breaks all rules. The tumor is Uranus.

There is a hint of an assassination. Whether its character assassination? Or an assassins bullet. If he is president, he will be assassinated, by forces who will have to stop him. So his presidency might be cut short. He has placed a Target on his back and if he is taken out – its by friendly fire. It’s the USA that takes him out at any cost. Wow!
